About Palau

Of the thousands of idyllic islands that dot the vast Pacific Ocean, Micronesia's westernmost island chain known as the Palau archipelago, is perhaps a best kept secret. Rich in natural beauty, steeped in ancient culture, Palau is truly Mother Nature's work of art!

Calm protected waters, soft sand beaches, hidden marine lakes, Micronesia's richest flora and fauna, remarkable birding, superb snorkeling and world class scuba diving make Palau the perfect place for adventure, exploration or just simple peaceful relaxation. We hope you join in the fun as KSC discovers this wonder of the world!

Palau is internationally renowned for its' marine bio-diversity which includes over 1,300 species of fish, an abundance of large pelagic animals, and over 700 species of corals. Palau was chosen by National Geographic Society as the first Underwater Wonder of the World and was featured on Discovery Channels "Living Eden's" series as one of the world's last living "Eden's".
